

Dominican Sisters of Hope

The Dominican Sisters of Hope strive to provide spiritual and financial support to the poor.

Through their advocacy center located in Norton, Sr. Elizabeth M. Jaspers OP and Sr. Margaret M. Flynn OP, help people in need to find food, work, shelter, clothing, and other things that help to sustain the life of the poor.

The Advocate Center is a bridge between agency and individual. We listen as the situation or problem is presented by the individual. When it seems to be an issue shared by many, we bring the concern to local groups. Over the years this has resulted in collaborating to open a domestic violence shelter, a food bank, legal services, chore services for the elderly, a homeless shelter, and a children's advocacy center.
